

The conference is organized by:

Department of Contemporary History
Faculty of Historical and Cultural Studies
University of Vienna

Contact: Elisabeth Röhrlich

Department of Contemporary History
Spitalgasse 2–4
1090 Vienna

elisabeth.roehrlich@univie.ac.at
T +43-1-4277-412 33
iaea-history.univie.ac.at

Supported by:

BUNDESKANZLERAMT ÖSTERREICH

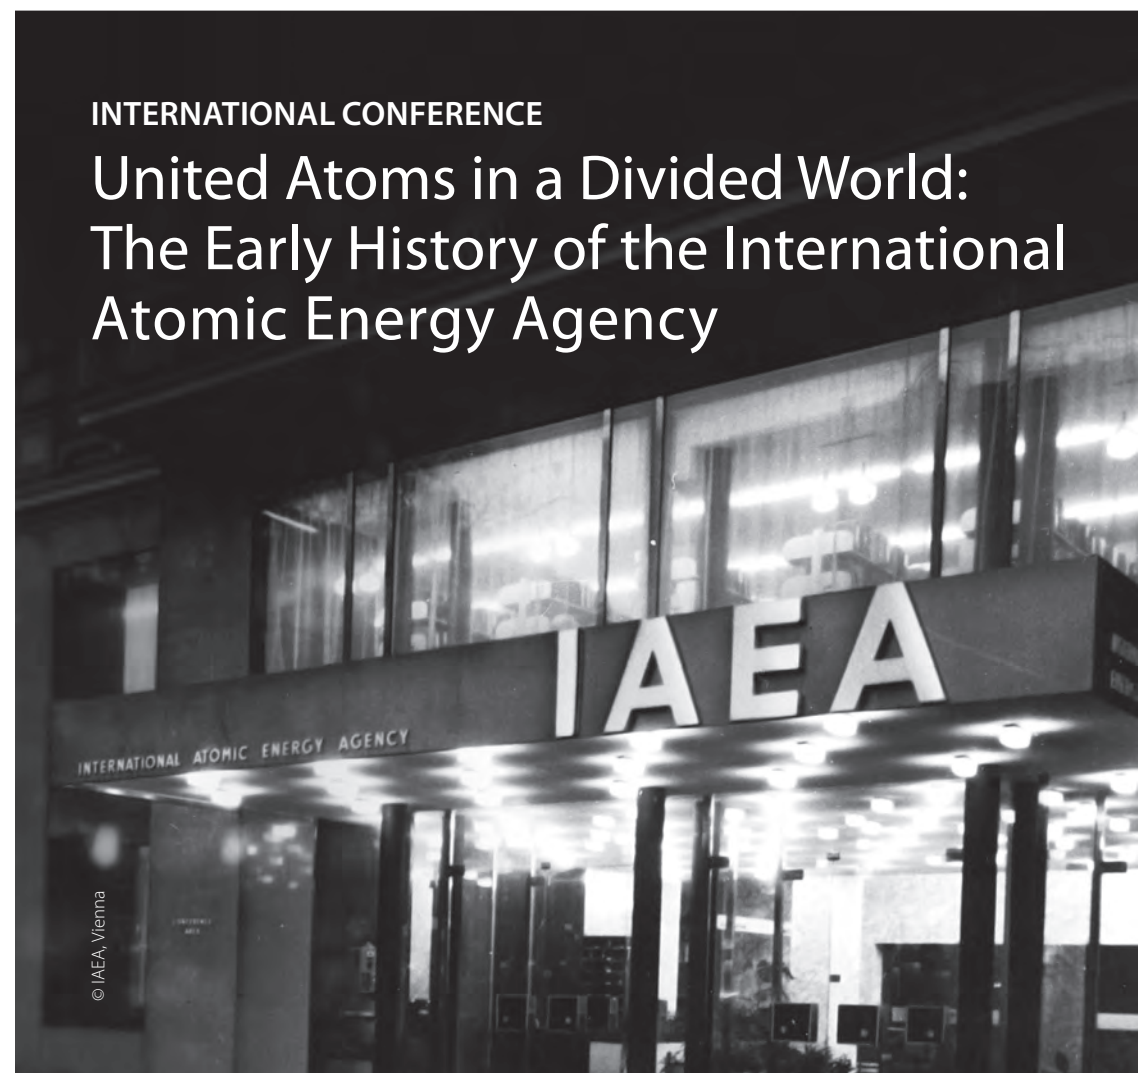

The Research Project "The Early History of the IAEA" is supported by funds of the Oesterreichische Nationalbank
(Anniversary Fund, project number: 14405)

UNIVERSITY OF VIENNA

Universitätsring 1
1010 Vienna
T +43-1-4277-0
www.univie.ac.at

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

United Atoms in a Divided World: The Early History of the International Atomic Energy Agency

16–18 September 2012
Vienna, Austria

Conference Venue
Dachfoyer Haus-, Hof- und Staatsarchiv
1., Minoritenplatz 1

Film Presentation
Metro Kino
1., Johannesgasse 4

Sunday, 16 September 2012

19:30 Film Presentation: The Beginnings of the IAEA in Vienna (Metro Kino)
(Curated and introduced by Leopold Kammerhofer and Marta Riess, IAEA Archives)

Monday, 17 September 2012

9:00–9:30 Registration

9:30 Welcome

10:00–12:30 Panel 1: The Early Years of International Nuclear Cooperation

The Soviet Union and the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy:
The Beginnings of International Control
David Holloway (Stanford)

The Third Nuclear Power: The UK and the Creation of the IAEA
Stephen Twigge (Kew)

From New York to Vienna: The IAEA Headquarters in Austria
Elisabeth Röhrlich (Vienna)

Euratom and the IAEA: The Problem of Self-Inspection
John Krige (Atlanta)

Chair: Christian Ostermann (Washington)

14:30–17:00 Panel 2: The IAEA and the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Regime

China and the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Regime, 1964–1989
Xin Zhan (Changchun)

The Indian Nuclear Program
A. Vinod Kumar (New Delhi)

The South African Nuclear Program and the IAEA
Jo-Ansie van Wyk (Pretoria)

The Peaceful Nuclear Explosion Debates
Robert Anderson (Vancouver)

Chair: Leopoldo Nuti (Rome)

17:30–19:30 Podium Discussion (in cooperation with DER STANDARD)

with Helmut Rauch (Atominstitut, TU Vienna)
Joseph F. Pilat (Los Alamos National Laboratories)
Gudrun Harrer (DER STANDARD, Vienna)

Chair: Oliver Rathkolb (Vienna)

Tuesday, 18 September 2012

9:00–11:00 Panel 3: Grass-Roots Movements, Environmentalism, and the IAEA

The Politics of Security: Protests against Nuclear Weapons and International Relations in the 1950s and early 1960s
Holger Nehring (Sheffield)

The Question of Nuclear Safety and the Rise of Environmentalism in Western Europe: Transnational Perspectives
Jan-Henrik Meyer (Aarhus)

The IAEA and the Debate on the Health Effects of Chernobyl
Karena Kalmbach (Florence)

Chair: Bernd Greiner (Hamburg)

12:00–14:00 Panel 4: Promoting the Peaceful Applications of Nuclear Technology

Imagined Modernity. Nuclear Power and West German Society in the 1960s
Gabriele Metzler (Berlin)

"La domestication de l'atome c'est le steak grillé avec l'énergie nucléaire" –
Nuclear Optimism in European Newsreels
Eugen Pfister (Vienna)

Three Mile Island: The First Great Nuclear Power Crisis
J. Samuel Walker (Washington)

Chair: Carola Sachse (Vienna)

14:00–15:00 Concluding Remarks

Oliver Rathkolb and Elisabeth Röhrlich