

Faculty/Department: Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures (CSMC)
Seminar/Institute: Cluster of Excellence "Understanding Written Artefacts: Material, Interaction and Transmission in Manuscript Cultures"

Universität Hamburg invites applications for a Research Associate for the project "Understanding Written Artefacts: Material, Interaction and Transmission in Manuscript Cultures" in accordance with Section 28 subsection 3 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG). The position commences as soon as possible.

It is remunerated at the salary level TV-L 13 and calls for 75 % of standard work hours per week*.

The fixed-term nature of this contract is based upon Section 2 of the academic fixed-term labor contract act (Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz, WissZeitVG). The term is fixed for a period of 3 years.

The University aims to increase the number of women in research and teaching and explicitly encourages women to apply. Equally qualified female applicants will receive preference in accordance with the Hamburg act on gender equality (Hamburgisches Gleichstellungsgesetz, HmbGleiG).

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities include academic services in the project named above. Research associates can also pursue independent research and further academic qualifications.

Range of Duties:

Research in the frame of the project "Immersive City Scripts: Inscriptions and the Construction of Social Spaces in Miletus (Asia Minor)". The research associate will closely cooperate with a research associate in the field of Human-Computer-Interaction. The position includes the enrolment in the Cluster's graduate school, and requires participation in research colloquia, lecture series and workshops, as well as active engagement in the Cluster's research activities.

Requirements:

A university degree in a field of Classical Studies (preferably Classical Archaeology) and good knowledge of Ancient Epigraphy; experience in Archaeological Fieldwork; fluent English, written and spoken.

Severely disabled applicants will receive preference over equally qualified non-disabled applicants.
