

The study of English as a lingua franca (ELF) in a wider context –
A symposium for Barbara Seidlhofer

Sat, 25 June 2016

University of Vienna, English Department (Unterrichtsraum)

- 9.30 Welcome & opening statements
- 10.00-11.15 Sociolinguistic contexts
Chair: Nikolaus Ritt (Univ. of Vienna)
- 10.00 Peter Trudgill (Agder Univ.)
ELF and new-dialect formation
- 10.15 Andy Kirkpatrick (Griffith Univ.)
ELF in Southeast Asia
- 10.30 Herbert Schendl (Univ. of Vienna)
From HEL to ELF: Some thoughts from historical linguistics
- 10.45 Discussion
- 11.15-11.45 Coffee
- 11.45-12.45 Applied linguistic contexts
Chair: Henry Widdowson (Univ. of Vienna)
- 11.45 Juliane House (Univ. of Hamburg/Hellenic American Univ.)
ELF and translation
- 12.00 Guy Cook (King's College London)
Reflections on categorization: Species, nations, languages
- 12.15 Discussion
- 12.45-14.15 Lunch
- 14.15-15.30 Pedagogic contexts
Chair: Ute Smit (Univ. of Vienna)
- 14.15 Kurt Kohn (Univ. of Tübingen)
From ELF communication to lingua franca pedagogy
- 14.30 Kumiko Murata (Waseda Univ.)
From EMI to 'ELF' MI – Against pervasive native speakerism and norms
- 14.45 Tim McNamara (Univ. of Melbourne)
Language testing and ELF
- 15.00 Discussion
- 15.30-16.00 Coffee
- 16.00-17.00 Perspectives on the emergence of ELF as a field of study
Cornelia Hülmbauer, Ruth Osimk-Teasdale, Marie-Luise Pitzl
- 17.00 Reception

Organized by Marie-Luise Pitzl with Henry Widdowson, Lisa Edelbacher, Veronika Thir
Please send an email to lisa.edelbacher@univie.ac.at by 12 June to register for the event.