

ÖLT 2021: 2nd Circular

1. Mode of the ÖLT 2021

The 46th Austrian Linguistics Conference scheduled to take place at the University of Vienna from December 9 to 12, 2021, will be held as an online conference.

Our decision is based on the fact that the pandemic and therefore the room capacities at the University of Vienna still prevent security of planning. Furthermore, under the current restrictions, one of the most important functions of the ÖLT, networking in a collegial and social atmosphere, would only be possible in a very limited fashion.

2. Agenda and Conception

We will adapt the ÖLT program accordingly. There will be digital rooms for the workshops, the general session and the plenary talks by Artemis Alexiadou (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin) and Manfred Kienpointner (Universität Innsbruck).

We will also create rooms to allow networking during breaks.

3. Workshops and Presentations

We ask the workshop organizers to inform us until October 31 if there are (e.g., accessibility-related) preferences concerning the app for the respective workshops. We can provide Zoom, Collaborate, and Big Blue Button. If no preferences reach us, we will allocate the workshops to panel rooms.

4. Organizational Matters

The conference will be free of charge, but we ask you to register here until November 30: oelt2021.univie.ac.at/anmeldung/

You will find further information concerning the conference on the conference site soon: oelt2021.univie.ac.at/

We look forward to virtually meeting you in Vienna!

The ÖLT 2021 organization team:

Hannes Fellner
Laura Grestenberger
Helmut Gruber
Florian Hoidn
Roswitha Ourednik
Markus Pöchtrager
Sonja Prendinger
Martin Reisigl
Jürgen Spitzmüller

E-Mail: oelt2021.sprawi@univie.ac.at

Department of Linguistics

Sensengasse 3a
1090 Wien

T +43-1-4277-41701
oelt2021.sprawi@univie.ac.at <https://oelt2021.univie.ac.at/>