Workshop

Chinese paper cutting 29th June 2011

The famous and award-winning Psaligraphy-master Li Shoubai will present a workshop in Chinese paper cut in traditional sense as well as a modern form of expression. With the professional assistance and active exercises you will learn about another facet of Chinese culture.

Li Shuobai has developed its own contemporary style, which is referred to as "heavy color painting style". The focus of much of his work lays in the use of old Shanghai and Shanghai Shikumen as motives.
