Mittwoch, 11. Jänner 2017 von 14:00 Uhr bis 14:45 Uhr, Sky Lounge, OMP 1

Junior Kolloquium: Helge Holgen (NTNU Norwegian University of Science and Technology): "On the Abel Prize in Mathematics– Would Abel have received the Abel Prize?"

We review some aspects of the short life of Niels Henrik Abel (1802–1829). In addition, we present the recent Abel Prize in Mathematics, first awarded in 2003. We try to assess whether Abel himself would have received the prize that bears his name. The talk requires no knowledge of mathematics.

Mathematisches Kolloquium: Helge Holgen (NTNU Norwegian University of Science and Technology): "On traffic modeling and the Braess paradox"

"We will discuss models for vehicular traffic flow on networks. The models include both the Lighthill-Whitham-Richards model and Follow-the-Leader models. The emphasis will be on the Braess paradox in which adding a road to a traffic network can make travel times worse for all drivers."
